

HOW TO MAKE THE CITY PROSPER.

To-morrow will appear in the APPEAL an excellent map, a copy of which prepared under the auspices of the chamber of commerce, showing the accessibility and commercial facilities of Memphis. Every road perfected and contemplated will be clearly defined, and the river itself will be shown in all its proper proportions as a gateway to the sea. Two thousand extra copies of the APPEAL have already been ordered by most intelligent merchants, and we hope that before nightfall this number will be increased to ten thousand. Each tradesman should send a copy of this paper of to-morrow to each of his correspondents in the south and down east, and infinite service will be done the city and country. Each merchant having an advertisement or editorial paragraph referring to himself in this paper of to-morrow, will be most wisely made known.

CONGRESSIONAL EPITOME.

In the senate a memorial from the citizens of Mississippi was presented by Senator Alcorn, asking congress to take charge of the levees of the Mississippi river. A bill passed to incorporate the Texas and Pacific railroad company, by which that corporation is enabled to execute a mortgage on certain portions of its road when completed. Senator McKim presented a memorial from Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood, asking the passage of an act declaring that no woman, otherwise qualified, shall be barred from practice in the United States on account of sex or color; referred to the judiciary committee. The senate entered upon the discussion of the deficiency appropriation bill, until four o'clock, when the chair laid before the senate a resolution of the house announcing the death of David R. Mellich, and inviting the senate to attend his funeral in the hall of the house at four o'clock this afternoon. Senator Conkling made a few remarks appropriate to the occasion, and offered a resolution of respect to the memory of the deceased, accepting the invitation of the house to attend the funeral to-day. Senator Stewart introduced a joint resolution proposing the following as an amendment to the constitution: "Article xvi. If any state shall fail to maintain a common school system, on which all persons between the ages of five and eighteen years, not incapacitated for the same, shall receive free of charge such elementary education as congress may prescribe, congress shall have power to establish one in such a system, and cause the same to be maintained at the expense of the state." Referred to the committee on judiciary. In the house, after the transaction of a mass of unimportant business, Mr. Stanford moved to suspend the rules and pass the senate bill to facilitate the execution of, and to protect certain public works of improvement at the mouth of the Mississippi river. Agreed to. Mr. Butler (Mass.) moved to suspend the rules and take up the senate supplementary civil rights bill and refer it to the judiciary committee, with leave to report at any time. Lost. Yeas, 153, nays, 84; not two-thirds. Referred to the committee on judiciary. AMUSEMENTS.

Mrs. Juley's Waxworks.
Mrs. Juley will exhibit her remarkable waxworks for the benefit of St. Mary's Episcopal church next Tuesday night at the Bonaparte theater. We expect a crowded house.

The Messiah.
The Mendelssohn quartette club, under the direction of Prof. J. E. Perling, will give the oratorio of The Messiah at the Cumberland Presbyterian church, next Friday evening. There will be a grand chorus of seventy voices, with appropriate orchestral accompaniment. The music is of the most beautiful character, and a brilliant concert is promised the public.

The German Protestant Sunday-School.
Yesterday the teachers and children of the German Protestant Sunday-School held a fine picnic at James' park. In the morning the Sunday-school, under command of their teachers, formed a procession and marched to the Old Memphis land, paraded Main street to Beale, whence they proceeded to the park, where a grand picnic was enjoyed by the little folks, as well as their numerous visitors.

Confederate Memorial Picnic.
The Confederate relief association will give a picnic early next week, for the benefit of the unfinished monument at Elmwood. The picnic will be held at the old Memphis land, paraded Main street to Beale, whence they proceeded to the park, where a grand picnic was enjoyed by the little folks, as well as their numerous visitors.

The Masonic Picnic.
The Masonic lodge of this city will give a magnificent picnic at James' park on the twenty-fourth day of June. In the meantime the different committees will be busy in making arrangements for the occasion. The picnic will be held at the old Memphis land, paraded Main street to Beale, whence they proceeded to the park, where a grand picnic was enjoyed by the little folks, as well as their numerous visitors.

SOCIETA DI UNIONE E FRATELLANZA ITALIANA.

Of this society it is needless to speak at length. Among the most enterprising, liberal and influential citizens of Memphis are many Italians, who constantly contribute invaluable services toward the growth and advancement of Memphis. These gentlemen are warm and enthusiastic in every enterprise they undertake, and to their good taste, excellent judgment and liberal spirit may be attributed the brilliant success which has attended all previous plans of the Societa di Unione e Fraternita Italiana di Memphis. To-morrow's picnic will, perhaps, surpass in the magnitude of its character and the enjoyment of those attending, all former ones given by this handsome club. While the picnic will be no triumphal car, still the society will parade the principal streets, and the children will be conveyed in carriages to the picnic grounds, where addresses will be delivered by the beautiful queens, and a coronation by Major Winchester. The arrangements for this great occasion are being made, and this picnic will invite thousands to participate in its pleasures and enjoyments.

Memphis Messenger.

The grand concert and dramatic entertainment by the German Messenger choir, which was carried out last Sunday night, was largely attended, and the entertainment was a most successful one. The choir, under the direction of Prof. Winchester, gave a most excellent performance, and the drama, which was a most interesting one, was also well received. The concert was a most successful one, and the drama was a most interesting one.

THE FIRMEN'S TROUBLE.

Action of the Fire Committee of the General Council on the Question of the Appointing Power.

Several days ago the APPEAL published the fact that Mayor Lowe had ordered the chief of the fire department to turn over the Chelsea horse-carriage to the fire department. The fire department, however, refused to receive the carriage, and the fire committee, which was appointed to investigate the matter, refused to recognize the appointment. The fire committee, however, went on duty, and as they proceeded along the streets, they were followed by a mob of enthusiastic admirers. The situation was an awkward one, and in order to avoid a riot, the fire department withdrew from the scene. The fire committee, however, refused to recognize the appointment, and the fire department, in turn, refused to receive the carriage.
